Meade-McDonald Vows Are Spoken

The E. C. Cowart home in Canal Point was the scene of the marriage of Miss Audrey Fayette Meade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Meade of Lakeshore Dr., Canal Point to Marvin E. McDonald of Belle Glade, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McDonald of Ashburn, Ga.

The double-ring ceremony was read by the Rev. H. E. Garrett, pastor of the Community Methodist Church, of Belle Glade, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was radiant in a white length gown of white embroidered satin, featuring a long fitted bodice, square neckline and three quarter length sleeves. The skirt was full and was fashioned with a pink velvet ribbon bow at the hipline.

She wore a gorgon headpiece outlined in sequins, with a nose veil and carried a white bible topped with a corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. E. C. Cowart, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pink faille suit with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. Mr. McDonald served as his son's best man.

Mrs. Meade wore a blue linen suit with white accessories and Mrs. McDonald chose for her son's wedding a blue linen frock with white accessories. They wore corsages of white carnations.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and held a three tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. The cut glass punch bowl was encircled with fern and pink hibiscus. Assisting in serving were Mrs. M. Burke and Mrs. R. R. Raulerson.

Mrs. McDonald for traveling wore a navy blue boxer style linen suit with white accessories. The couple left immediately for Atlanta, Ga. They will be home at 17 East Pine Circle, N. E. Atlanta.

The bride is a graduate of Pahokee High School and Belle Glade Business College, West Palm Beach and before her marriage was traffic manager at WSWN Radio Station in Belle Glade. She was a member of the local BPWC and the Cottillion Club.

Mr. McDonald attended three years at Georgia Tech and served in the U. S. Army. He was agent for the Gulf Life Insurance Co., in Belle Glade and now plans to enroll at Georgia Tech for his masters degree in Civil Engineering and a years training in Industrial management.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. John L. Evans of Bean City, aunt and uncle of the groom, Mrs. Lena McDonald, Lakeland, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Williams, Lakeland, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McDonald, Ashburn, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Smith, Sr., of Belle Glade.
